As Christian Stewards we need to remind the world of God's love and forgiveness. Every aspect of our lives - gifts as well as sufferings - can, if surrendered to God, lead to blessings for ourselves and others.

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish. You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Something unexplainable happened on the first Easter morning. One thing that all the four Gospels agree on is that no one was there to give an eyewitness report of what we call the Resurrection of Jesus.

When Mary Magdalene (and other women) came to the tomb on Easter morning, it was already empty. In St. Mark's story, they see an angel and then meet the Risen Jesus on the way home. In St. John's account, Mary came to the conclusion that someone had stolen Jesus's body, and went to tell the disciples.

When Peter got to the site, he studied the details, scratched his head, and couldn't make sense of it.

Another (unnamed) disciple ran along with him; we are told that he "saw and believed." But what, exactly, did he see to make him "believe" and what is it he "believed"?

And even though, according to St. Matthew's account, there were soldiers stationed there, they "shook and became like dead men" at the appearance of an angel, who rolled away the stone and sat on it.

What we gather from these accounts is that there were many responses to make about the empty tomb of Jesus. Through the ages, Christians have wrestled with "what happened" that first Easter morning. Despite the various answers, one thing is true for believers: because of that morning, our lives are different—here today, twenty-one centuries later. We reflect on the stories of our faith and allow them to help guide us in life and in our choices. Hearing and remembering these stories, we are encouraged to be people of hope, even when the world is a dark and unhappy place and even though we may be wrestling with questions of faith. What we experience and what we know are never the complete picture. This is at the heart of Easter. Christ is risen! Life has overcome death!

May you have a happy and blessed Easter! ~ Fr. Jim

SOLENNITY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD (EASTER SUNDAY)

Roll away the stone

Each year at this time we gather with friends in faith to pay a mystical visit to a cemetery in Jerusalem. We go up to an abandoned tomb and peer in. What do we see? Nothing. There's no one buried here. In fact, the church gathers every year at this spot to affirm there's nobody here. Isn't this odd behavior, to visit an empty grave? Yet it's not the empty tomb that matters. It's what happened just before this tomb became irrelevant that counts. We come here to pledge our allegiance to that. He is risen!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8; Victimae Paschali Laudes; John 20:1-9 or Luke 24:1-12 (42, 41) or, at an afternoon or evening Mass Luke 24:13-35 (46). "So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb."

MONDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Take care of your mother

Catholicism is rich in observances, but here's one outside our tradition that Catholic teaching also invites us to join: Earth Day, celebrated annually on this date since 1970. The event, which kick-started the environmental movement, is now the largest secular observance in the world, with 193 countries demonstrating support for environmental protection. From the biblical mandate to care for God's creation to Pope Francis' recent encyclical on environmentalism, you are directed by your faith to heed the call to "think globally, act locally."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14, 22-33; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); Matthew 28:8-15 (261). "Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed."

TUESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Rise up from sorrow

Easter is a season of joy, but it's not always joyous for everyone. Perhaps a loved one has recently died or the anniversary of their death is at hand. How do you handle death and sorrow at a time of new life and joy? Mary Magdalene grieved mightily at the tomb of Jesus, but he helped her let go of his earthly life, which had already given way to his resurrected life. With eyes of faith we, too, can begin to let go of the earthly presence of a loved one, trusting that they also live on in the loving presence of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:36-41; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); John 20:11-18 (262). "Jesus said to her, 'Stop holding on to me.'"

Wednesday, Apr 24, 2019

WEDNESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Break bread together

A retreat director, preaching on the story of Emmaus, told this story about recognizing Christ in our midst, anywhere and in anyone. It had been a long day and the first-graders were running their teacher ragged. The dismissal bell rang and the children sped out the door. The teacher shepherded them out, then sat wearily on a bench watching them go. A child waiting for her big brother to walk her home watched the teacher, then wandered over. She sat beside her and carefully opened her lunch bag. She unwrapped the sandwich and, with her small hands, broke it in two. She looked up at the teacher and handed her half, saying, "I get tired and hungry after school, too. Here."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:1-10; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); Luke 24:13-35 (263). "He took bread, said the blessing . . . and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him."

THURSDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Happy Alleluia!

In virtually all liturgies during Easter, the refrain of the responsorial psalm may be replaced by Alleluia. For Christians it has become an Easter word, so much so that in the Polish language, for example, rather than "Happy Easter" the people declare "Happy Alleluia!" During Lent we fast not only from food but from the exultant joy of this word, keeping silent, letting it build within. Then, at the Easter Vigil, the Alleluia bursts forth! Before the gospel the deacon sings Alleluia for the first time in six weeks, in an elaborate melody, three times, each time in a higher key, and each time repeated by the assembly. Sing Alleluia today in and out of the shower! Shout it! Listen to Handel's setting in the Messiah. Wish someone "Happy Alleluia!"

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:11-26; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); Luke 24:35-48 (264). "You are witnesses of these things."

Friday, Apr 26, 2019

FRIDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Gone fishing

In times of loss and grief, we often find comfort in doing something that is familiar. Once we attend to the details of burial, we face each new day as best we can, seeking the comfort of mindless routine and doing things we must do in order to keep on going. Thus, in this week after Jesus' death, it is not unusual to find his sad and fearful disciples returning to the sea to work the nets of their fishing boats. Though our loved ones may not appear to us on the seashore, faith does tell us that they have found new life and continue to be with us from among God's communion of saints. In prayer today, remember a loved one who has died and ask for the grace of their intercession.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:1-12; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); John 21:1-14 (265). "Come, have breakfast."

Saturday, Apr 27, 2019

SATURDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Sing out the good news!

"That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious King. Thy mercy show!" Thus ends the Victimae Paschali Laudes, a medieval church hymn traditionally chanted during Easter liturgies. A more fitting conclusion could not have been written—rejoicing in Christ's victory over death and in the same breath asking for his mercy. If any Christian doubted the need for the mercy of God, the events recounted on Good Friday should have been enough to refresh their memory. Fortunately Christ's victory is also a victory over human sinfulness. Rejoice and break into song!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:13-21; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); Mark 16:9-15 (266). "When Jesus had risen . . . he appeared first to Mary Magdalene."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

Liturgical Ministry Training

One of the most important fruits of the Vatican Council (1962-1965) was the desire of the Bishops from around the world for more active participation on the part of the congregation at Mass. This began by having the Mass translated into local languages. Building on that, various ministries were revived or created to allow men and women to use their gifts to strengthen the local parish. Readers of the Scriptures (Lectors) and Ministers to assist with Holy Communion have enriched our worship here at St. Margaret over the years.

Longtime or new parishioners are invited to prayerfully consider this opportunity to become part of these wonderful ministries. It would be a wonderful way to thank the Lord for his blessings!

Training sessions will be offered in May for

Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion
at Parish Masses

Training for both Ministries:

Thursday 7pm – 10pm [May 23 in Melville]

Additional training for Ministers of Holy Communion to hospital/homebound only:

A new program has been established. Please call Fr. Jim for more information.

If you are interested, please write to Fr. Jim at least two weeks before the date of the session that you are interested in attending describing why you feel called to one of these ministries.

Emails to jwood@saintmargaret.com are welcome, too.

Becoming a Catholic Christian~ RCIA

Do you know a friend or family member who has expressed a desire to learn more about the Catholic faith? Is there someone who has mentioned to you that they are thinking about becoming a Catholic and does not know how to proceed? Are you someone who is reading this yourself and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith? If the answer to any of these questions is “Yes,” then you are invited to continue your exploration with the members of our RCIA team. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The first stage is called “Inquiry,” a time to ask questions and receive answers without any pressure to make a decision. The goal is to help adults move toward a commitment to the Lord and full participation in the Catholic community at their pace. It is meant specifically for adults who are seeking Baptism, or those who have been baptized but have not received Confirmation or Eucharist. For more information, please call the Parish Center (631-732-3131 x 133).

Auditorium Planning Well Under Way

The planning for the update of the Auditorium is well under way. It is our plan that the work be done this summer while the entrance bridge is replaced.

The wall in front of the rest rooms will have to be moved out to accommodate the widening of the stalls for “adult sized” bodies. Two ADA compliant restrooms will be added for the convenience of those in wheelchairs or walkers. To accomplish this, the floors of the restrooms will be dug up to allow moving the plumbing lines.

The installation of a new hood in the kitchen will permit the re-installment of our long stored stove and the ability to expand equipment for preparing food for our parish celebrations. A new hot water heater, sized to the kitchen needs, will make cleaning up easier. A new dishwasher will ensure the proper cleaning of the kitchen utensils.

Under-counter refrigeration and a freezer will make it easier to access food needed for an event. New lighting will brighten the kitchen area. We are looking to address the electric needs of the kitchen and auditorium for coffee urns.

Proposed Schedule of Work

PHASE I Fall 2018

Approximate Cost: $450,000

- Replace the Church Entrance Bridge and Side Stairways
- Mandated Removal of the oil tank in the Parish Center and replace the Boiler
- Update the Kitchen in the Auditorium

PHASE II Fall 2019

Approximate Cost: $290,000

- Update Auditorium Bathrooms and Replace Parish Center's Handicapped lift
- Add Handicapped Parking spaces and Re-coat & re-stripe the Parking lot
- Install new padding on the kneelers

PHASE III Fall 2020

Approximate Cost: $210,000

- Update Fire and Security Alarm systems in the Church and Parish Center
- Replace the Sidewalks
- Replace the Windows in the Parish Center
