Time, Talent & Treasure

Stewardship Thought for the Week.

Following Christ is not always easy. He may call us to leave our comfort space and make some changes in our lives. If we are going to talk the talk, we must walk the walk. This week, start following Jesus by resolving to go to confession. Check your church bulletin for times.

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

For a change of pace on these Sundays until Labor Day, I'm offering examples of people from the 20th century whose lives give us a chance to appreciate the different ways that faith can be lived and shared. [Since June 30th is the memorial of the First Martyrs of Rome, this story deals with modern day Christians being martyred because they tried to follow the teachings of Jesus.] ~Fr. Jim

Martyrs of Acteal, Mexico (d. 1997)

On the morning of December 22, 1997, a prayer gathering in the church of Acteal in the highlands of Chiapas (in the southern part of Mexico) was disturbed by the sound of gunfire. The church was surrounded by paramilitary troops who proceeded over the next six hours to massacre forty-five indigenous civilians, mostly women and children, including infants. The victims were members of a remarkable organization called Las Abejas—"the bees"—founded in 1992 and drawing from the local indigenous communities.

Based on their reflection on Scripture and with a strict commitment to nonviolence, the Abejas had formed to promote social justice and human rights, promoting their cause through prayer, fasting, and demonstrations. They chose their name because, "Like the bees, we want to build our houses together, to collectively work and enjoy the fruit of our work. We want to produce 'honey' but also to share with anyone who needs it. We know that, like the little bees, the work is slow but the result is sure because it is collective."

In 1994 the Zapatista Army launched an insurrection in Chiapas to promote justice for the indigenous people. The Abejas sympathized with the goals, but not the means, of the Zapatistas. Nevertheless, they were tarred as subversives. After the massacre, the Abejas (including fifty-four orphans) still continue their commitment to forgiveness, reconciliation, and nonviolence, despite the unwillingness of the government to punish the organizers of the massacre.

"We want to say to you we are keeping you company on this Christmas Day, the saddest Christmas Day of our lives . . ."
—Bishop Samuel Ruiz, at the funeral in Acteal in 1997

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the U.S.A. has followed a set of rules initiated by the bishops of the country and approved by the Vatican for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priests or deacons: The Essential Norms for Diocesan/Eparchial Policies Dealing with Allegations of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests or Deacons

Every U.S. diocese/eparchy is required...

- To have a written policy for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel
- To investigate promptly and objectively any allegation of sexual abuse of minors by a priest or deacon
- To appoint a victim assistance coordinator, who is available for the immediate pastoral care of persons who report having been sexually abused as a minor by a priest or deacon
- To remove offending priests or deacon permanently from Church ministry
- To report allegations concerning child sexual abuse to civil authorities and to cooperate with the civil investigations
- To prohibit the transfer of offending priests or deacons for ministerial assignment in another diocese or eparchy
- To establish a review board of at least five persons, mostly members of the laity, who counsel the bishop on allegations and review local policies dealing with sexual abuse of minors
- To receive necessary background information before permitting a priest or deacon to exercise ministry in a diocese or eparchy
- To protect the rights of accusers and of the accused

Vol II Edition 21

Total Pledged: $857,880

Watch Your Footing!

Tuesday morning, before 9am mass, the contractors put jack hammer to concrete and by the end of the day, the bridge was gone.

A week ago Friday, National Grid was here and ran the gas service from College Rd to the Parish Center. During the summer, our plumber will be completing our conversion to gas.

Now that the front entrance is not available, the only entrances to the church for the time being will be the side stairways.

We have put together a list of Masses in neighboring parishes in this bulletin and copies are in the lobby and parish center. The contractor is the same one we used for the side steps and the rail fabricator already has the specs. We are hoping that the summer months will be enough time to have a new entrance installed (which will not be a bridge).

Proposed Schedule of Work

PHASE I Fall 2018

Approximate Cost: $450,000

- Replace the Church Entrance Bridge and Side Stairways
- Mandated Removal of the oil tank in the Parish Center and replace the Boiler

- Update Auditorium Bathrooms and Replace Parish Center's Handicapped lift
- Add Handicapped Parking spaces and Re-coat & re-stripe the Parking lot

PHASE III Fall 2020
