Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

This past week was Pastoral Care Week, perhaps one of the least noticed events on the calendar! Begun in 1985, it is a recognition that many people—clergy and laity together of every creed—bring a spiritual presence and values to those in need. The people involved are a diverse lot. Hospital and prison chaplains, military spiritual advisors and school counselors, nurses and hospice workers, long-term care facility employees and average folks caring for vulnerable family members—all making sure that God's compassion and tender care is experienced in the flesh. Our parishioners who bring Communion to the sick or those whose mobility is limited might be included here too.

When you think of all those in the military, those incarcerated, as well as those in hospice, hospitals and care facilities, you see the tip of the iceberg of those receiving some sort of pastoral support annually. That doesn't count the rest of us who have taken, are taking, and will take primary responsibility for family members, neighbors, and friends for short durations or for the long haul. The face of pastoral care is all of us.

Why do we do this? Interdependence is the natural design of things. By caring for the little, the lowly, the lonely, and the lost, we all become stronger and more human. As Paul says, he competes well, fights his fight, finishes his race—but never alone. God stands by him and gives Paul the strength to accomplish all that he does. Caregivers know that it's by God's grace alone that we fulfill our beautiful, vital, humane and holy ministry. [Next week we will have an opportunity to support Catholic Chaplains who minister in our Armed Forces. Please be generous in helping. See more information below.] ~ Fr. Jim

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops approved a special national collection, to be taken up once every three years, to support the Archdiocese for the Military Services. The date for the current collection is next weekend—November 2-3.

The Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), unlike a regular diocese, has no parishes and must depend on the support of the Catholic faithful throughout the United States for its pastoral care and services to 1.8 million Catholics serving in our U.S. Armed Forces and federal installations worldwide. While chaplains' salaries are paid by the USA, the AMS receives NO funding from the government or military for program and administrative costs. The nation's largest archdiocese, AMS spans the globe and its priests go wherever American servicemen and women are stationed, bringing them the sacraments, spiritual support and the Good News of eternal salvation through Jesus Christ. Thank you for your generosity.

Liturgical Ministry Training

One of the most important fruits of the Vatican Council (1962-1965) was the desire of the Bishops from around the world for more active participation on the part of the congregation at Mass. This began by having the Mass translated into local languages. Building on that, various ministries were revived or created to allow men and women to use their gifts to strengthen the local parish. Readers of the Scriptures (Lectors) and Ministers to assist with Holy Communion have enriched our worship here at St. Margaret over the years.

Longtime or new parishioners are invited to prayerfully consider this opportunity to become part of these wonderful ministries. It would be a wonderful way to thank the Lord for his blessings!

Training sessions will be offered this Fall for Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion
Training for both Ministries:

Nov. 9 (Sat.) St. Rosalie, Hampton Bays (1pm - 4:30pm - English)
Nov. 19 (Tues.) St. Christopher, Baldwin (7pm - 10pm)

Additional training for Ministers of Holy Communion to hospital/homebound only:

A new program has been established. Please call Fr. Jim for more information.

If you are interested, please write to Fr. Jim at least ten days before the date of the session that you are interested in attending explaining why you feel called to one of these ministries.
 Emails to jwood@saintmargaret.com are welcome, too.
 If you would like more information, please call Fr. Jim (732-3131 x 111) or email to the address above.

Low Gluten Altar Breads

Do you or anyone in your family have a problem with wheat products? This allergy often prevents people from sharing in Communion completely because they cannot receive the Host. We have special hosts made by a Convent in the Midwest that many people have been able to use, because there is only 0.01% gluten in these hosts. For info, check their website BENEDICTINESISTERS.ORG. IMPORTANT: if you are gluten intolerant, consult with your doctor before use.

If you wish to receive one of these hosts, please let the priest celebrating Mass know before Mass so he can have one for you, then go to him at communion. As you receive, please remind him that you need a "special host."

Dear Friends:

As I approach my 30th anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood on October 21, 2019, I would ask your prayers for a very special and specific intention for the future of the Catholic Church on Long Island.

Pray that 30 young men – 30 seminarians for 30 years of priesthood – will enter the seminary in August 2020.

Let's call on the Holy Spirit together to provide a rich harvest of vocations to the priesthood for Long Island!

And let's express our gratitude to the holy and dedicated priests who serve us with such Good Samaritan dedication each day in our evangelizing parishes.

Gratefully in Christ,

 Most Reverend John O. Barres
 Bishop of Rockville Centre

Becoming a Catholic Christian~ RCIA

Do you know a friend or family member who has expressed a desire to learn more about the Catholic faith? Is there someone who has mentioned to you that they are thinking about becoming a Catholic and does not know how to proceed? Are you someone who is reading this yourself and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith? If the answer to any of these questions is "Yes," then you are invited to continue your exploration with the members of our RCIA team. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The first stage is called "Inquiry," a time to ask questions and receive answers without any pressure to make a decision. The goal is to help adults move toward a commitment to the Lord and full participation in the Catholic community at their pace. It is meant specifically for adults who are seeking Baptism, or those who have been baptized but have not received Confir-
