Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Human experience is wrapped in mystery. Both birth and death are beyond our understanding, and what's in between is not exactly simple or clear. Whether we believe that death is an end or a portal to God, we are on a journey toward somewhere, and we'll get there sooner or later. This is not the most precise description, but that is basically what the Lord says in today's Gospel section. And the disciples' reaction is something we can relate to: uncertainty. Trusting Jesus was a challenge even for those who knew him, who shared years on the road with him, who broke bread with him.

The Second Reading uses a different image to help us deal with this uncertainty. We are stones being built into a design that we cannot comprehend. The weight of our own destinies may be burdensome to us, but not to the builder who knows precisely how to shape and place us. In his hands, we will assume the perfect contour for our position in the structure, and where we wind up could not be more right. Again, a call to faith and trust. Letting go requires confidence in the kind, wise and loving God that Jesus revealed!

All this talk about not having definite guidelines or clear paths is fitting on this Mother's Day weekend. From the first inkling of pregnancy through the nine months and birth, each mother-to-be has only general guidelines, no precise directions. And what comes after! Being so important yet being taken for granted. Loving, yet needing to discipline. Being a chauffeur one minute and a confidant the next. On and on, no clear guide at any point. Happy Mother's Day to mothers who are on the journey for the first time, or who are "old hands at it" or have been called back into service for another round!

Fr. Jim Wood, Pastor

ps: This week we begin our usual Mothers Day Novena of masses. Anyone wishing to have their mothers remembered, are asked to email us at: jwood@saintmargaret.com or pbutler@saintmargaret.com so we can include these beloved women in our novena. Anyone wishing to send in their Mothers Day Envelope can include it when sending in their next donations.

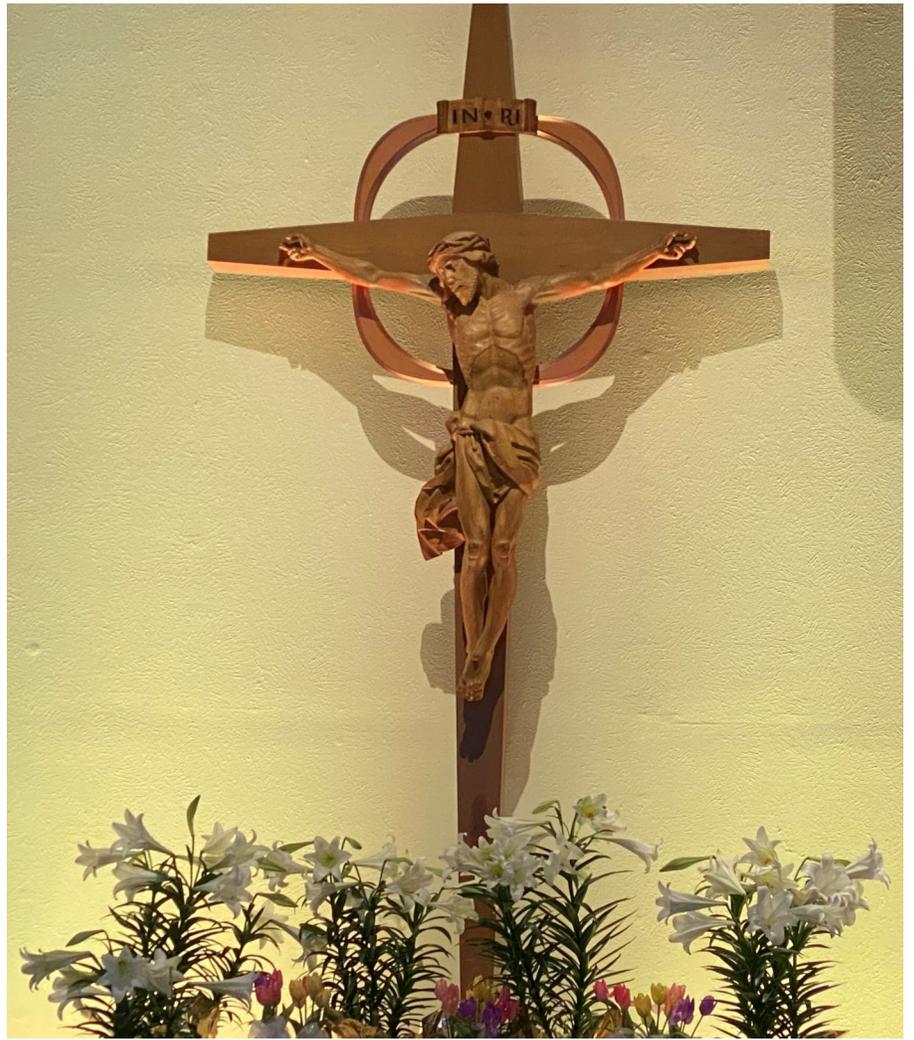

SUNDAY MASS AVAILABLE ON ST MARGARET'S WEBSITE

The Sunday Mass from St Margaret of Scotland Church is streamed on our website each weekend. Click the Announcement and Online Masses section on the opening page. It will take you to a link for the masses celebrated each day from St Agnes Cathedral as well as the Liturgies from St Margaret's. Please note, for those who wish to spend some prayer time in front of the Eucharist, we have a link to the Easter Tabernacle as well as the Good Friday Cross.

We offer the Act of Spiritual Communion (lower right) for those of you celebrating with us from your homes so that we may all pray it together at Communion time.

Anyone wishing to place a request in the Book of Intercession is invited to send a eMail to either Fr Jim (jwood@saintmargaret.com) or Fr Paul (pbutler@saintmargaret.com) so we can add your intentions to The Book of Intercession and remember them at Mass.

As noted elsewhere in the Bulletin, we ask that you let us know of the passing of any of our parishioners. Since Funeral Homes are not scheduling funeral masses, we are often not aware of those who have died.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Vatican releases free downloadable book of pope's homilies, prayers for 'difficult times'

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- The Vatican published a free downloadable book of Pope Francis' prayers and homilies responding to the trial and suffering of the coronavirus pandemic.

Titled "Strong in the Face of Tribulation," the book also contains suggestions for Catholics who are unable to receive the sacraments due to restrictive measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

The book, which was released April 21, is available in English, Italian, Spanish and French and will be updated several times a week "with new homilies and other interventions made by the pope," said Andrea Tornielli, editorial director of the Vatican Dicastery for Communication.

"This book is intended to be a little help offered to all, so as to know how to discern and experience God's closeness and tenderness in pain, in suffering, in solitude and in fear," Tornielli wrote in the book's introduction.

"Thousands of people are gravely ill, thousands have died," he wrote. "Many families mourn their loved ones, to whom they were unable to stay close, to whom they were unable to say farewell, and who were cremated without the possibility of a funeral."

For Catholics, he added, not participating in the liturgy or the sacraments, "aggravates this condition of uncertainty, discomfort and confusion."

Nevertheless, Tornielli said the church's invitation to "renew our faith in the risen Christ" has sparked creativity, especially among priests who, through the use of technology, "make themselves present in the life of their communities and families confined to their homes in semi-deserted cities."

The editorial director said that when lived "in its essential elements," Christian faith can offer an outlook on reality that offers the possibility of seeing God's love and experiencing the unity of the church even amid solitude and isolation.

As we begin a new calendar month, I want to share with you some practical details of our parish during these difficult past six (!) weeks.

Parish Life All parish programs and church services were suspended by March 20th. Videoing Sunday Masses began on a regular basis on Palm Sunday. In addition to the video Mass, Fr. Paul and Fr. Jim celebrate private Masses for requested intentions. Unfortunately, that suspension included funerals and weddings. But, if a family requests, a short prayer of commendation outside the church as a deceased person is being taken to the cemetery is available. Concerted efforts are being made to stay connected with our people through the various ministries. Julie in Outreach and the Food Pantry is available on a modified basis. She also oversees the requests and questions that come into the Parish Office. Jackie as Faith Formation Coordinator is in regular contact with catechists and families. Dan (Music Director) plans the music and is the musician for our video Masses, as well as offering other resources on our website. Lisa (Business Manager) oversees our business details and stays alert to ongoing info from the Diocese. Mike (Facilities Manager) keeps the plant running. Fr. Paul and Fr. Jim work together in planning the Masses as well as spending time connecting with parishioners as they can.

Personnel Parish Staff members have been dividing their time between working from home and coming into the office on limited bases. Unfortunately, the pandemic has meant changes in employment. All part-time workers had to be furloughed and the full-time Staff had to have their hours/salaries reduced by about 40%.

Finance As you will not be surprised to see thanks to the graph, income has declined steeply. As with most of you, we are on utility budgets, so even though we might be using less, we are still be paying the budgeted amount. No unnecessary purchases are happening. Please remember that any amount you can donate is welcome and helpful to the life of our parish!

Attention First Communicant Families

We are all waiting and anticipating life's activities. When can we go to work? Will the children be able to go to camp? Can we take that vacation we planned? When will St. Margaret open so my child can receive First Communion? There are many unknowns.

What we do know at St Margaret of Scotland is that when we are able to have Mass we want to offer you options so that we can start to celebrate the joy of First Communion. We understand that there will be guidelines that we will have to follow, so we will have many celebrations to reach this goal.

Please help us by answering the following questions in order of preference.

1. Would you like your child to receive at Sunday Liturgy?

10am or 12pm

or

2. Would you like your child to receive at a Saturday morning First Communion Liturgy?

Yes or No

Please email me your child's name and choice along with any questions you may have. Thank you in advance for your response

Sincerely,
Jacqueline Mirenda

Confirmation Preparation

Confirmation II

As we will not have class meetings before Confirmation, let's finish the Chosen Book. Chapter 23 "How do I build the Kingdom?"

Each generation of Catholics must do their part to "build the Church." The apostles, disciples and their followers built on their Jewish roots and scripture to spread the message of Jesus Christ from Jerusalem to spread the "Word" through the known world.

The most famous of all church buildings is probably St Peter's Basilica in Rome. The building we see today is not the only church to ever stand on the grave of Peter, who had been buried in a small shrine on the side of the Vatican Hill (for which the area was named). Emperor Constantine started what was known as "Old St Peter's" built after Catholicism was legalized in 323. The cemetery hill was flattened and filled in making St Peter's tomb now on top of the hill. It was completed after his death.

The current building's planning started under Pope Nicholas V prior to his death in 1455. Old St Peter's had fallen into disrepair during the time the popes were in Avignon, France. It was Pope Julius II who decided the new basilica needed to be grander than Nicholas planned and began a succession of great artists who would build what we now see, taking 176 years, from start to finish.

It was only during an archeological dig during World War II looking for the original shrine that it and St Peter's bones were uncovered. Very often, what we start is not completed in our lifetime. We do our part and pass it on to the following generations.

Have you thought about your part in building the Church? Like St Peter's, have your plans for your future transformed as we have gathered? How are you called to be Christ in the world today?

Please know you can always contact me at:
pbutler@saintmargaret.com.

First Prayer

O Mary,
You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the foot of the cross,
were united with Jesus' suffering, and persevered in your faith.
"Protectress of the Roman people",
you know our needs,
and we know that you will provide,
so that, as at Cana in Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.
For he took upon himself our suffering, and burdened himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.
Amen.

We fly to your protection,
O Holy Mother of God;
Do not despise our petitions
in our necessities, but deliver us always from every danger,
O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.

PRAYER OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS TO MARY FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

"We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God".

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic. Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment.

Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust.

Protect those doctors, nurses, health workers and volunteers who are on the frontline of this emergency, and are risking their lives to save others. Support their heroic effort and grant them strength, generosity and continued health.

Be close to those who assist the sick night and day, and to priests who, in their pastoral concern and fidelity to the Gospel, are trying to help and support everyone.

Blessed Virgin, illumine the minds of men and women engaged in scientific research, that they may find effective solutions to overcome this virus.

Support national leaders, that with wisdom, solicitude and generosity they may come to the aid of those lacking the basic necessities of life and may devise social and economic solutions inspired by farsightedness and solidarity.

Mary Most Holy, stir our consciences, so that the enormous funds invested in developing and stockpiling arms will instead be spent on promoting effective research on how to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in the future.

Beloved Mother, help us realize that we are all members of one great family and to recognize the bond that unites us, so that, in a spirit of fraternity and solidarity, we can help to alleviate countless situations of poverty and need. Make us strong in faith, persevering in service, constant in prayer.

Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course.

To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary.
Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Glory Be (The Doxology)

Glory be to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

The Hail Holy Queen (The Salve Regina)

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope.
To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
to you we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us;
and after this, our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Amen

LETTER OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS TO THE FAITHFUL FOR THE MONTH OF MAY 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The month of May is approaching, a time when the People of God express with particular intensity their love and devotion for the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is traditional in this month to pray the Rosary at home within the family. The restrictions of the pandemic have made us come to appreciate all the more this “family” aspect, also from a spiritual point of view.

For this reason, I want to encourage everyone to rediscover the beauty of praying the Rosary at home in the month of May. This can be done either as a group or individually; you can decide according to your own situations, making the most of both opportunities. The key to doing this is always simplicity, and it is easy also on the internet to find good models of prayers to follow.

I am also providing two prayers to Our Lady that you can recite at the end of the Rosary, and that I myself will pray in the month of May, in spiritual union with all of you. I include them with this letter so that they are available to everyone.

Dear brothers and sisters, contemplating the face of Christ with the heart of Mary our Mother will make us even more united as a spiritual family and will help us overcome this time of trial. I keep all of you in my prayers, especially those suffering most greatly, and I ask you, please, to pray for me. I thank you, and with great affection I send you my blessing.

Rome, Saint John Lateran, 25 April 2020
Feast of Saint Mark the Evangelist

Pope Francis

Praying the Rosary

1. Make the Sign of the Cross.
 2. Holding the Crucifix, say the Apostles' Creed.
 3. On the first bead, say an Our Father.
 4. Say one Hail Mary on each of the next three beads.
 5. Say the Glory Be
 6. For each of the five decades, announce the Mystery (perhaps followed by a brief reading from Scripture) then say the Our Father.
 7. While fingering each of the ten beads of the decade, next say ten Hail Mary's while meditating on the Mystery. Then say a Glory Be.
- After saying the five decades, say the Hail, Holy Queen, followed by this dialogue and prayer:
- V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
Let us pray: O God, whose Only Begotten Son, by his life, Death, and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech thee, that while meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

White Mass

Praying for Health Care Workers

White Masses (so named for the white coats and uniforms worn by many healthcare professionals) are special opportunities to ask God's blessings for those serving in the medical field.
