Time, Talent & Treasure

Stewardship Thought for the Week.

Pillar of Service: Living Stewardship : Sometimes, we tend to look at things with only our human understanding. The difficulties we face, may lead us to despair and doubt. We need to learn to trust in Jesus and believe that He can help us through any problem we face.

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish. You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

In the end of August, things are pretty quiet as schools open soon, as families wrap up vacations and people return to work. It's a really good time to pick up a book, head to the beach or have a long, leisurely lunch at a local eatery. We sense that the rush of the schedule is at abeyance for a little while longer, and why not rest up before having to put it into overdrive just after Labor Day.

In the second reading at Mass this weekend, we have a passage from the Letter of Saint James, a part of the New Testament literature which we call the Catholic Letters. The Catholic Letters emphasize themes which stand out from the Protestantism of Luther, Calvin and Zwingli in the sixteenth century. Back then, the Protestant reformers had pushed the necessity of faith so far that they wound up denying a place for works in salvation. This position came to be known as faith alone. It is not a biblically tenable position because it runs counter to the Letter of Saint James.

The sacred author writes in the Letter of Saint James that we must “be doers of the word and not hearers only.” Such a declaration makes clear that we cannot be passive before the word, the word of God, that is. We must assume an active posture with respect to God’s word according to the Letter of Saint James, endeavoring to act on our faith through works. Faith begins with hearing but it surely does not end there. Indeed, faith reaches its culmination in and through works.

To be a “doer of the word” requires that we discern and judge; otherwise, our action runs the risk of being just acting and not anything more than that. That discernment and judgment do not come to us magically or deus ex machina. They come to us precisely because we are at rest, precisely because we are drawn down – so to speak. Time and again, Jesus took occasion in his ministry to withdraw from the hurried if not frenetic pace of things in the earthly Kingdom. We need to follow his example.

Enjoy these remaining “off” days of late August. How profitable they are for us – especially when we may not have to produce anything. We ought to be content, I say, with a vital preparation for doing the word. What we hear in prayer and recollection these days, we trust, will soon enough bear fruit in our doing.

Do you know?

Question for this week: Who is the American author from the Southern United States of the last century whose Catholic faith informed her writing?

Answer to last week’s question: Terence Cardinal Cooke was the last American archbishop to be the Military vicar for the united States Armed Forces.

We Gather...

We invite all lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to join us on Wednesday, September 8th at 7:00 PM for a Holy Hour in church. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and it will conclude with Benediction at 8:00 PM.

Following the Holy Hour, there will be a meeting to review procedures and practices in the basement of the parish center building. We will finish by 9:00 PM.

Parish Updates

Beginning the 1st of September, the office in the parish center will have new hours. As of this new date, the office is open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Thursday and 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM on Friday. Please make note of the new and expanded hours for serving the parishioners of Saint Margaret.

Starting September 1st, the donation for announced masses and unannounced masses will be $20.00. The increase is to meet the diocesan norm of $20.00, which has been at this rate for more than several years. We are grateful that you remember deceased loved ones through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Please continue this meritorious practice.

We invite you to visit the grotto in honor of Our Lady on church property. It has been beautified with new plantings and reflects an inspiring devotion to the Mother of God. We are grateful for the work done there and trust that many parishioners will be drawn to it for prayer and recollection. Thank you!

We are returning to the ordinary way of distributing Holy Communion at weekend and daily Masses. Kindly allow worshippers in the pews closest to the sanctuary to approach for the reception of Holy Communion first. This coincides with the return of the distribution of Holy Communion in the center aisle. This goes into effect on the weekend following Labor Day (September 11th and 12th).

Sunday, Aug 29, 2021 TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Purity is not an abstinence test

Many of us who grew up in a moralizing culture were taught to imagine purity as having mainly to do with chastity. In which case, our aim was higher than the almost-but-not-quite perfection you might get from Ivory Soap, which years ago advertised itself as 99 and 44/100 percent pure. We may therefore be astonished that, according to the apostle James, purity in religion has something to do with how we respond to the abandoned in this world. Think charity, not chastity, to bump up your purity percentile. TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8; James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27; Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23 (125). "Religion that is pure . . . is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction."

Monday, Aug 30 Remember your name

After being baptized with water, Catholics are anointed with oil and these words are said over them, "As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body . . ." That means we share in those offices of Christ. Those are big roles—how to live up to them? Priests worship and make offerings to God, prophets speak the truth and live the gospel, royalty leads and takes care of others. If you remind yourself regularly of the sacred titles you were given at Baptism, how might that help you fulfill your promise? TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Luke 4:16-30 (431). "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Tuesday, Aug 31 Hope works

Today, in Poland, it's the Day of Solidarity and Freedom—a modern Independence Day celebration after years of oppressive Soviet rule. In the 1980s, labor activist Lech Walesa helped stoke the flames of democratic social change. But it was Poland's favorite son, Pope John Paul II, who provided the spark. In his 1979 papal visit, John Paul II gave the people an electric hope that change was possible. "Let the Spirit descend and renew the face of the Earth. This Earth," he said. With Labor Day nearly here, remember how solidarity and workers' rights are cornerstones of Social Teaching. TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6, 9-11; Luke 4:31-37 (432). "They were all amazed and said to one another, 'What is there about his word?'"

Wednesday, Sep 01 Living waters run deep

The annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation celebrated today "offers to individual believers and to the community a precious opportunity to renew our personal participation in this vocation as custodians of creation," says Pope Francis, who elevated this day in 2015 with the publication of his encyclical on the care of creation, Laudato Si'. As we move past August, Water Quality Month, be particularly mindful of your stewardship over the precious resource of clean drinking water. May all of us "come to the water" together as we care for our common home. TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:1-8; Luke 4:38-44 (433). "I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God, because for this purpose I have been sent."

Thursday, Sep 02 Get unstuck

In today's gospel Simon Peter is so overcome by his own sinfulness, he tells Jesus to go away from him. What exactly is "sinfulness"? Lots of actions and inactions fall into that category, but the essence of Catholic teaching on sin is that it separates us from God. Selfishness, violence, and other sins drive a wedge between us and God. Peter knew that instinctively. Remove that wedge by asking God for forgiveness, and ponder what you can do to free yourself to reconcile a relationship that has become estranged. TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:9-14; Luke 5:1-11 (434). "Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.'"

Friday, Sep 03 MEMORIAL OF GREGORY THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Keep it all in balance

It's never easy to find the right balance between sitting quietly and attentively on the sidelines and joining in the scrum of life's adventures. Our life of prayer helps us to discern how best to hold these together and to respond with love for ourselves and the common good. Gregory was a Benedictine monk of the late sixth century and loved his life as a contemplative. Yet, when called upon to take the helm of a church suffering from the fall of Rome and the plague, he stepped up and found his calling expressed in new ways through prayer, caring for those in need, and leading compassionately. Find the right balance between action and contemplation. TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:15-20; Luke 5:33-39 (435). "In him all the fullness was pleased to dwell."

Saturday, Sep 04 The fruits of creation for all of creation

It's interesting to note that in the story of Jesus' hungry disciples eating the grain from a farmer's field, the objection raised by the Pharisees is not that they took the grain, but that they did so on the Sabbath. In fact, eating grain or produce from a neighbor's farm while passing through was permitted by Jewish law (Deuteronomy 23:25-26), provided one did not carry off any surplus. It was considered a common courtesy and obligation of charity to share the abundance of creation with one's neighbor. Perhaps we can embrace that same ethic in our own stewardship of the abundance God has entrusted to us. TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:21-23; Luke 6:1-5 (436). "While Jesus was going through a field of grain on a sabbath, his disciples were picking the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them."
