In last week's bulletin, there was an insert calling attention to Stand Up for Life, an annual event for nearly a quarter of a century now. It reminds us that every abortion takes the life of a human being, and that there are many, many Americans who are opposed to this practice despite its lawful character.

There are two places on Long Island where Stand Up for Life is held – in Melville along Route 110 and in Manorville which is Exit 70 off the Long Island Expressway. For years and years, I have participated in the event in Melville where there are usually several hundred pro-lifers who gather on the east side of Rt. 110 south of Jericho Turnpike between 2:00 PM and 3:30 PM in a largely silent public witness against the evil of abortion.

Those who participate hold signs which are visible to the hundreds and hundreds of vehicles which traverse that busy thoroughfare on a Sunday afternoon in the early autumn. As you would expect, it gets the attention of drivers and passengers, many of whom choose to express their approval for the public witness they see and others who do not.

The event is always the first Sunday in October (the 3rd this year), the month dedicated to the defense of human life in the womb. Those who participate pray the rosary and may use other prayers to petition the Lord for His assistance as we do what we can, refusing to let abortion slip from the public consciousness although it has been the law of the land since the Supreme Court decided the matter in Roe v. Wade in January of 1973.

For decades, Long Islanders have been going to Washington, D.C. for the March for Life since the Supreme Court decision of nearly fifty years ago. But the trip is a long one to our nation's capital and it is undertaken at a decidedly unfavorable time weather-wise. So, if you cannot go to Washington in the winter, Stand Up for Life affords you the opportunity to stay local with your pro-life conviction, and at a much more favorable time of the year weather-wise too.

As you may know, the Hyde Amendment, named for Rep. Henry Hyde (R, Illinois), precluded taxpayer monies from being used to support most procured abortions. But the Hyde Amendment was deliberately left out of the federal budget this year. Efforts have been made to re-institute the Hyde Amendment but that is not a certainty any longer. Besides, a drive is being made now to codify Roe v. Wade in the states, New York included, of course.

Whether you can get to Stand Up for Life this time or not, please set aside some time to contact our local legislators and let them know you are pro-life and you do not want your taxpayer monies going toward the procurement of abortion. And ask for a reply. Most media outlets do not publish or otherwise publicize office-holder votes because they do not want citizens to know who favors abortion and who does not – all the while the mainstream media is relentlessly pro-abortion.

If your schedule allows, I encourage you to participate in this year's edition of Stand Up for Life. And, by all means, let family members and friends know about Stand Up for Life. It deserves your support.

Mass Book for 2022

The Mass Book for 2022 opens on Monday, October 18th at 9:00 AM in the parish center. We encourage you to remember deceased relatives and friends at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Through the Communion of Saints, we are never removed from those whom we love. We hope for a reunion with them in God's providence, and praying for them now helps to bring that reunion a nearer prospect.

Parish Updates

Thank you to the ushers who attended the meeting on the 14th of this month. We are grateful for your service to the Parish of Saint Margaret. We will meet again in the Lenten season at some point. Please watch the bulletin for the exact date and time of that meeting.

Lectors and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are reminded to read and adhere to the instruction page for liturgical ministers distributed at the meeting earlier this month. Those who were not able to attend the meeting are asked to pick up the instruction page in the office at the parish center building. Our aim always is to pray the Mass with reverence. Your cooperation is appreciated.

On the weekend of October 16th/17th, Maria Hansen of Forty Days for Life will speak briefly at the end of all Masses. She will ask your help in giving witness to the sanctity of pre-born life. We thank you in advance for your attention and we ask you to consider becoming involved in the pro-life apostolate as your circumstances allow.

Sunday, Sep 26, 2021 TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Well done, good and faithful servants

Mother's and Father's Days aren't occasions for parents to toot their own horns about how fabulously they fulfilled the tasks of child-rearing. These dates are for their children to recall and celebrate the special people who made their lives possible. Similarly, today's Priesthood Sunday isn't meant for priests to beat the drum about their vocation. It's an opportunity for the rest of us, who benefit from their fidelity, to thank the men who were present to the first moments of our life in faith and will be there at the last—plus countless moments in between. TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 11:25-29; James 5:1-6; Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48 (137). "Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!"

Monday, Sep 27 MEMORIAL OF VINCENT DE PAUL, PRIEST God works with us as we are

Saint Vincent de Paul is known for founding two religious orders, reforming the church, and serving the poor to such an extent that he is the patron of all works of charity. Many schools and parishes bear his name. But in his lifetime, he was also known for being irritable and quick-tempered—which his friends confirmed and he himself admitted. He said it was only God's grace that made him compassionate, humble, and generous. He's a perfect example that we don't have to be perfect to do saintly work—if we let God soften our hard-heartedness, what great things we might do. TODAY'S READINGS: Zechariah 8:1-8; Luke 9:46-50 (455). "For the one who is least among all of you is the one who is the greatest."

Tuesday, Sep 28 MEMORIAL OF WENCESLAUS, MARTYR A faith that runs in the family

Good King Wenceslaus is, of course, best known for his care of the poor and the concern he showed his servant, as immortalized in the famous Christmas carol. Indeed, it was young Wenceslaus' habit to sneak out in the middle of the night and—with his servant assisting—roam the countryside looking for poor or imprisoned people he could anonymously help with his almsgiving. But Wenceslaus and his grandmother, Saint Ludmila, could also be patron saints for grandchildren who are raised in the Catholic Christian faith primarily by their grandparents. Pray for all modern grandparents who assume this role. TODAY'S READINGS: Zechariah 8:20-23; Luke 9:51-56 (456). "Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord."

Wednesday, Sep 29 FEAST OF MICHAEL, GABRIEL, AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS God's special care for migrants

Every minute of the day 20 people in the world leave everything behind to escape war, persecution, or terror. The archangels of the Bible represent God's special care for these migrants. Michael was the guardian of Israel during their captivity in the foreign land of Babylon. Gabriel is the patron saint of diplomats and ambassadors living in foreign countries. Raphael is featured in the Book of Tobit accompanying the story's hero, Tobias, on his journey to a foreign land to find a wife. The church recognized World Day of Migrants and Refugees last Sunday. Pray that the archangels guide and protect migrants and refugees making perilous journeys everywhere. TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 or Revelation 12:7-12a; John 1:47-51 (647). "You will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Thursday, Sep 30 MEMORIAL OF JEROME, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Translating the faith for the ages

Where would the church be without the word? If you have ever read a verse from the Bible, thank Saint Jerome (347-419). His translation of the Bible from Greek and Hebrew into Latin set the standard until the mid-20th century, paving the way for scholarship that affects our contemporary translations of scripture. His pivotal writing and translating earned him the rare title of "doctor of the church." Give a nod to Saint Jerome by reading a favorite scripture passage today. TODAY'S READINGS: Nehemiah 8:1-4a, 5-6, 7b-12; Luke 10:1-12 (458). "Say to them, 'The Kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

Friday, Oct 01 MEMORIAL OF THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, VIRGIN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Graceful glances

Glances are totally underrated. They seem trivial, hurried and fleeting, even stolen! They are the smallest of gestures, barely registering a flick of the eye. It is surprising then that a glance can also be a prayer. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux wrote, "For me, prayer is an aspiration of the heart, it is a simple glance directed to heaven, it is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy; finally, it is something." Our prayerful "glances" are significant. They register with God. A glance can communicate everything to God, especially when life leaves us wordless. Pause now for a moment and glance at God. TODAY'S READINGS: Baruch 1:15-22; Luke 10:13-16 (459). "Justice is with the Lord, our God."

Saturday, Oct 02 MEMORIAL OF THE HOLY GUARDIAN ANGELS All night and all day

Years back, in perhaps what were more innocent times (or at least appear so to us now), Catholic schoolchildren were encouraged to leave a little space on their chairs for their guardian angels. This charming bit of nostalgia reveals a deeper article of faith. From biblical times to the present, the testimony on angels guiding us has been consistent. Saint Augustine said, "Go where we will, our angels are always with us," while Saint Bernard encouraged Christians to "Make the holy angels your friends . . . we have nothing to fear under the protection of these guardians." Perhaps the larger truth is that although suffering and even tragedy may come our way, if we leave our hearts open, we will not be left alone. God will be at our side. Scoot over a bit! TODAY'S READINGS: Baruch 4:5-12, 27-29 (460); Matthew 18:1-5, 10 (650). "Their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father."
