Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only.

Thank you.

When I started these columns on parish finances two weeks ago, I covered the subject of Mass attendance first. I would like to begin with this topic now as I finish up this series. I wish to emphasize therefore that parish finances are healthiest when Catholics attend Mass regularly. This point may be obvious but it underscores how devotion to the faith is connected to fiscal strength. Those who come to church are more likely to support the parish financially than are those who do not come to church regularly.

So, let me urge all Saint Margaret parishioners to heed the commandment to keep holy the sabbath and come to church on Sundays (or on Saturday evenings) and Holy Days of Obligation. Holiness and stewardship go together. When we practice the former, we attend to the latter at the same time.

Church-going is related to discernment. By discernment, I mean our faith bids us to decide things in life by the criterion of faith. In other words, we decide things according to a well-formed conscience. In my first column, I used the expression generous sacrificial giving. I return to it now because generosity is integrally related to faith. Faith-filled people are generous because the Lord is first generous with them. He has given us life, talents and grace. We show our gratitude to the Lord for His blessings by generously using what He has conferred upon us. God did not spare His Son; rather, He gave the Son to us lest we perish and die. Eternal life, we know, comes to us at a cost – the cost being a life. By sacrificing Himself on the Cross for us, Jesus teaches that true love cannot be shown without sacrifice.

We exercise generosity and sacrifice in that to which we give the treasure portion of our stewardship. That generous sacrificial giving is made manifest in writing out a check, placing it in an offering envelope which comes to my home, and then placing that same envelope in a basket which comes to me in God's home – the church. That solemn act of generous sacrificial giving honors what God has done for me in the gift of His Incarnate Son.

If you are unable to be present for Mass on a weekend, if you are ill, for instance, or if you happen to be away on vacation – whenever you are prevented from worshipping with us, please send your weekly offering in the regular mail or electronically. The bulletin offers details on how to contribute to Saint Margaret electronically. A fair number of parishioners already supports our parish this way. Join those who give of themselves even if they cannot be present in the pew for a good reason.

With all of the attention on how to give up to this point, let me say a few words here at the end about what we need as a parish. You may have seen over the last few weeks in the bulletin that the weekend collection has come in at $11,000.00 or so. May I ask that we seek to raise that total figure about a thousand dollars more each weekend up to 12,000.00. The method for doing so I outlined in my column last weekend. Recall how I used the categories: under $10.00; between $10.00 and $25.00; over $25.00 and up to $49.00 and $50.00 and higher. We can get to $12,000.00 if enough parishioners take a step – a step being an increase within a category or a jump to the next category. I ask that you consider my request prayerfully and act accordingly. Thank you.

I will give further updates in the weeks and months to come through the bulletin. As always, I am grateful for the trust you show in supporting Saint Margaret. Let us seek to do more financially that we may continue to be faithful to the mission we have in this portion of the Lord's vineyard.

Msgr. Batule
Pastor

A few things from the Pastor

The Memorial of Saint Blaise is Thursday, February 3rd and the Blessing of Throats will be available after the 9:00 AM Mass.

As you know, there are a number of weekends every year where there is a second collection taken up at Mass. The second collection is a requirement for every parish in the diocese. It is taken up immediately after the first collection, which is always for the Parish of Saint Margaret. Your envelope packet every month or so tells you the date when the second collection is taken up.

I received a call from an Officer at Suffolk's Sixth Precinct last week. She was inquiring if we would be interested in an Officer coming to Saint Margaret to talk to seniors on safety. If you are interested in attending a presentation here at Saint Margaret on this topic, kindly call the office at the parish center. If enough seniors are interested, we will schedule such a session.

Sunday, Jan 30, 2022 FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Children should be seen, heard—and guided

It's been a tough two years on everyone, but especially on the kids. Childhood was upended by the pandemic. Schooling has been a heroic effort, and peer interactions have been stifled. This generation of young ones will have a special burden in trying to make up for lost time, missed opportunities, and natural social interactions. They've also learned unexpected lessons about global interconnectedness, the rich advantages of technology, and the bitter realities of social inequity. Today begins Catholic Schools Week, with the theme "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service," to remind us that our schools enable children to put what they learn in the context of gospel values. Support faith-based education! TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19; 1 Corinthians 12:31—13:13; Luke 4:21-30 (72). "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you."

Monday, Jan 31 MEMORIAL OF JOHN BOSCO Celebrating a lovely education

Saint John Bosco, a 19th-century Italian priest, was an educator ahead of his time. He understood the power of positive reinforcement long before modern psychology came along—and he applied this theory to teaching poor kids who had rough lives. His method? Quite simply, love. Rather than punish kids, he was kind. During Catholic Schools Week, offer a prayer of thanks for the educators who nurtured you through your formative years. Whether you went to Catholic schools or not, those special teachers were reflecting Christ's love back to you. Remember how their good works shaped the Christian you are today. TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 15:13-14, 30; 16:5-13; Mark 5:1-20 (323). "Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you."

Tuesday, Feb 01 Catholic education for a better world

On this Tuesday of Catholic Schools Week, the focus is on the student. The National Catholic Education Association encourages schools to today recognize students' accomplishments—but also have them embrace the "grounding in faith, knowledge, and service" a Catholic education provides. In a June 2021 address to Latin American Catholic schools, Pope Francis expands this vision even more. He urges "welcoming schools" that "do not retreat into a selfish elitism, but that learn to live together with everyone . . . knowing that everything is connected." His wish? That "schools have conscience and create conscience." Pray for all Catholic students today. TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 18:9-10, 14b, 24-25a, 30—19:3; Mark 5:21-43 (324). "The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded."

Wednesday, Feb 02 FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD Comfort food for the soul

Mexican American neighborhoods will be filled with the sweet aroma of warm tamales today, served because of a special connection this day has to January 6, the Epiphany. On Epiphany, La Rosca, a cake in the shape of a crown, is shared by family and friends in honor of the Magi, a.k.a., the three kings. The person who finds a small figure of Jesus hidden in their slice of cake is tasked with throwing a tamale party today, the day the infant Jesus is presented at the Temple. Welcome Jesus to your table today. TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 (524). "When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord."

Thursday, Feb 03 Lift up her voice

Servant of God Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange, O.S.P., died on this day in 1882. Born into a well-educated family of means in the Caribbean, she immigrated to Baltimore in the early 1800s as a free black woman in a slave state. Seeing the need for education among her fellow Caribbean immigrants, she taught out of her home, opened a school in 1828, took first religious vows a year later, and founded the Oblate Sisters of Providence. Mary Elizabeth and her fellow sisters devoted themselves to works of mercy and social reform, working with communities of color facing poverty, racism, and the degradations of slavery. Nearly 200 years later, the order's work continues strong, as does the canonization process for this remarkable woman. Let Mary Elizabeth's example inspire you to respond to injustice with courageous compassion. TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 2:1-4, 10-12; Mark 6:7-13 (326). "The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them."

Friday, Feb 04 Invest your humanity

On this Friday of Catholic Schools Week, Pope Francis offers supportive words for Catholic educators. "To educate is an act of love, it is to give life. And love is demanding, it calls for the best resources, for a reawakening of the passion to begin this path patiently with young people. The educator in Catholic schools must be, first and foremost, competent and qualified but, at the same time, someone who is rich in humanity" and able to promote spiritual growth. For this, Francis said in 2014, "it is necessary to invest." How can you help support Catholic educators today? TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 47:2-11; Mark 6:14-29 (327). "He added beauty to the feasts and solemnized the seasons of each year."

Saturday, Feb 05 Be careful what you ask for

The wisest thing Solomon ever did was to ask for wisdom. Given the chance to ask for anything, he didn't go the route of wealth, fame, immortality, but rather chose the road less traveled. For, as one biblical commentator put it, wisdom is "a bountiful crop with a meager harvest." Often personified in biblical testimony as the feminine face of the Divine, Proverbs tells us that she "cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice; at the head of the noisy streets she cries out; at the entrance of the city gates she speaks: 'How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple?'" We are Solomon, and the choice is ours to make. What will you choose? TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 3:4-13; Mark 6:30-34 (328). "The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. . . . 'In addition, I give you what you have not asked for.'"

Diocesan COVID Update:

“The Governor of New York State has included houses of worship in her recent directives. Therefore, since the Church does not require parishioners to present proof of vaccination in order to worship God, we ask that all parishioners (two years of age and older) comply with the requirement to wear masks when participating in any activities on parish grounds. This State requirement is currently in effect through February 1, 2022. We will continue to adapt accordingly as new information becomes available. Your patience and Christian charity towards one another during this difficult time is appreciated.”
