Stewardship Thought for the Week

Pillar of Service: Living Stewardship :

The magi gave Jesus the gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Jesus told us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we do for Him. So, this week what gifts will you give to Jesus through your hospitality to others?

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish.
You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

After I wrote my last bulletin column on December 27th, news broke that Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, at 95 years of age, died in Rome at his residence. In fact, it was the last day of 2022 (December 31st) that the Pope Emeritus breathed his last on earth. In the days that followed, Catholics all over the world prayed for him, participated in Memorial Masses, and some even travelled to Rome for the Funeral Mass on January 5th and his interment beneath Saint Peter's Basilica which followed.

A handful of parishioners here at Saint Margaret came together on Tuesday night the 3rd, and along with the Choir under the direction of Dr. Dan Crews, we remembered the Pope Emeritus during a celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

It was an extraordinary life for Joseph Aloysius Ratzinger, the son of a police officer and a homemaker, who was baptized a Catholic on Holy Saturday in 1927. He pursued a priestly vocation and the Sacrament of Holy Orders was conferred upon him in 1951. After being a theological advisor at the Second Vatican Council (a peritus) and teaching theology at German universities, Pope Paul VI named him the Archbishop of Munich and Freising in his home country. Just three months after being named the Archbishop, the Pope created him a Cardinal. He remained for several years in his archdiocese before being asked by Pope John Paul II to go to Rome and become the Prefect of the Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith. He remained in that position until the death of Pope John Paul II in 2005. In the conclave which followed the Polish Pope's death, Cardinal Ratzinger was elected the next Vicar of Christ and took the name Benedict XVI.

Pope Benedict XVI served nearly eight years as pontiff. He shocked the world and resigned the papal office in late February of 2013, the first Pope to do so in six hundred years. He then took up residence at Mater Ecclesia, dedicating himself to prayer until his eyes shut for the last time on earth. Death came, as I said above, before the first dawn of 2023.

We continue to hold the Pope Emeritus dear in our hearts, asking the Lord that he be counted among the elect in heaven. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest eternally in the peace of God. Amen.

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Epiphany, sometimes referred to as the Feast of the Three Wise Men or Little Christmas. In the Gospel of Saint Matthew, the evangelist recalls how the Magi were led to Bethlehem of Judea by a star and where they presented the Infant King with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. (cf. Matt 2:1-12)

A once popular bumper sticker says: Wise Men Still Follow Christ. And, thus, do we make our way to Christ amid the darkness of our night sky. We arrive at the "house of bread," the Church's Eucharist, prostrating ourselves and doing Him homage. (cf. Matt 2:11)

As I indicated in my last bulletin column, I am providing excerpts from the document entitled The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church weekly. Last time, our brief commentary was on the sacrifice of the Holy Eucharist. I continue in that same vein with the following words.

The Passover meal is celebrated in remembrance of the Exodus, when the Israelites were told to sacrifice a lamb to the Lord and to mark the doorposts of their houses with the blood, so that the angel of death would pass over their houses and leave the Israelites unharmed. This marked a people set apart and chosen by God as his special possession. . . . At the Last Supper, Jesus reveals himself to be the Paschal Lamb whose sacrifice brings liberation from slavery to sin and whose blood marks out a new people belonging to God.

The saving work of Jesus Christ, which has brought to fulfillment what was announced in figure in the Passover, is now represented in the celebration of the Eucharist. . . . The Church constantly draws her life from this redeeming sacrifice; she approaches it not only through faith-filled remembrance, but through a real contact, since this sacrifice is made present ever anew, sacramentally perpetuated, in every community which offers it at the hands of the consecrated minister.

Until the next time

Sunday, Jan 08, 2023Bless this mess

Do a perimeter walk of your home. What do you see? Each room tells a story, every corner contains a chapter about who lives here and what happens between these walls. Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers recommends we bless our homes annually on Epiphany in imitation of the wise ones who once followed the divine presence to a humble dwelling. What sort of blessing might each area need? What requires a blessing: the kitchen table, living room sofa, or home office desk? A child's room or elder's sickbed? Don't forget the front door—the passageway to every other story that involves us.

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20). "Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come."

Monday, Jan 09, 2023Be a carrier of peace

Pigeons and doves are different species within the same family of birds. The homing pigeon, also called the mail or carrier pigeon, is a variety bred for its ability to find its way home over extremely long distances of up to 1,000 miles or more. Because of this skill, they were used to carry messages throughout history. The dove, of course, is a symbol of peace and hope, and famously carried an olive branch to Noah on the Ark after the great flood. If you want to send a similar message, you don't have to go nearly as far. Just extend peace and hope across the dinner table or over the neighbor's fence.

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 or Acts 10:34-38; Matthew 3:13-17 (21). "He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him."

Tuesday, Jan 10, 2023Give peace every chance

On this day in 1920, the Treaty of Versailles formally ended World War I. On this same day in 1946—following World War II—the UN General Assembly met for the very first time, gathering on church property at the Methodist Central Hall in London. And on January 10, 1984 the United States and Vatican City re-established full diplomatic relations after 117 years. It's not enough for Christians to worship the Prince of Peace. "We must work tirelessly to avoid war between nations and peoples," writes Pope Francis in Fratelli Tutti (On Fraternity and Social Friendship). "There is a need to ensure ... tireless recourse to negotiation, mediation, and arbitration." Learn more at Pax Christi USA.

FIRST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:5-12; Mark 1:21-28 (306). "The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes."

Wednesday, Jan 11, 2023Measure with mercy

On this day in 314—or the day before; the history is unclear—Pope Saint Miltiades died after a life of historic twists and turns that would help define the Early Church. Born to North African parents, Miltiades was the second of the Catholic Church's three African popes, having been elected in 311, shortly after the end of the persecutions of Emperor Diocletian. As pope, Miltiades was most famous for rejecting the Donatists, who argued that apostates who repent needed to be re-baptized (and re-ordained, if priests). In an age of manifestly imperfect priests, may we model Pope Miltiades' mercy and forgiveness for all the fallen—starting with ourselves!

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:14-18; Mark 1:29-39 (307). "They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up."

Thursday, Jan 12, 2023Pull back the curtain with contemplative prayer

Fans of The Wizard of Oz relish the moment when a curtain is drawn and the Great and Terrible Oz is shown to be an ordinary man. In a way, the tradition of contemplative prayer is an attempt to pull back the curtain but with reverse results. Instead of seeing the wondrous as ordinary, contemplation is meant to move people to see the depth and intricacy and wonder of the ordinary. In other words, contemplative prayer wants us to see God's face everywhere. Consider the times when God's presence became tangible for you. Build a time into today to seek that presence.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 3:7-14; Mark 1:40-45 (308). "Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched the leper, and said to him, 'I do will it. Be made clean.'"

Friday, Jan 13, 2023The word is out

Saint Hilary, born in Poitiers in southwest France in 315, had a learned education but was not raised Christian. Able to read the biblical languages, however, he was drawn to Christianity by the beauty and power of the prologue of the Gospel of John (John 1:1-18) and spent his life in strong defense of the divinity of Jesus, a controversial subject at the time. Recognition of his tireless efforts eventually earned him the high title of doctor of the church. Perhaps John's prologue has a word to speak to you as well. Why not dip into its powerful language today?

MEMORIAL OF HILARY, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:1-5, 11; Mark 2:1-12 (309). "Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, pick up your mat and walk?'"

Saturday, Jan 14, 2023Accepted unconditionally

Levi was an outcast of his people. Because of his position at the Roman customs post, not only he but also his family were held in disdain. His alliance with the Romans was considered treasonous and his wealth ill-gotten. Levi had many character flaws, yet Jesus chose him as a disciple, and he accepted. This is good news for the outcasts of our generation, the people our society and sometimes our church counts as unacceptable. It's good news for all of us, to be honest, as we all fall short in one way or another. Thankfully, Jesus sees past our shortcomings. Imitate Jesus before judging others.

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:12-16; Mark 2:13-17 (310). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."
