Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note-due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only. Thank you.

Our Lenten observance has begun. Let us make the best of this holy season to deepen our union with Christ by renouncing our sins and receiving the Lord's forgiveness and mercy. May we bear that forgiveness and mercy in our hearts, minds and souls and offer the gifts of forgiveness and mercy to others.

As I mentioned previously, I wanted to schedule a time here at Saint Margaret to bring the exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles here. I was able to do that, and I want to tell you now that the exhibit will be at Saint Margaret in late April for several days before it has to be returned to the custodians of the exhibit. On the fourth weekend of April (22/23), parishioners will be able to view the exhibit in the auditorium after all four Masses. Continue to follow the bulletin for more details on the exhibit.

As you know from reading this column, we have been giving attention to the Holy Eucharist because we are in the middle of a Eucharistic Revival. To assist us, we are relying on The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church. I have been placing excerpts of that document in this column with regularity for a while now. I want to return to those excerpts, having already covered the topics of Sacrifice and Real Presence in previous columns. I want to return to excerpts from The Mystery of the Eucharist as we make our way through Lent. I continue below with what the document says regarding our response to the Holy Eucharist.

On worship during the celebration of the Mass, we find the following:

Bishops and priests have a particular duty to ensure that the Mass is celebrated in a manner befitting the sacredness of what takes place. [Priests should] be vigilant in ensuring that every liturgy be celebrated with decorum and fidelity to the liturgical books promulgated after Vatican Council II, without the eccentricities that can easily degenerate into abuses. Priest celebrants should have a prayerful understanding of the liturgical books, as well as of the feasts and seasons, and be faithful to the texts and rubrics established by the Church. In doing so, they will lead the people more deeply and reverently into the exchange that is the dialogue of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit.

Our gratitude is also expressed in our worship of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass. These forms of worship are all intrinsically related to the Eucharistic celebration. . . . We rejoice in the growing numbers of the faithful who pray in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, a testament of faith in the Real Presence of the Lord in the Eucharist. We encourage this devotion, which helps all of us to be formed by the self-giving love we behold in the Lord's gift of himself in the Eucharist.

On this point of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which is plainly lauded in the document I have just cited, I take this opportunity now to encourage all of our parishioners to come to Adoration during Lent. Specifically, I am referring to the Monday Nights of Adoration and Benediction which begin on February 27th. In total, there are five (5) of these evenings with preaching all five (5) nights on different topics related to the Holy Eucharist. I urge you to see the flyers on the bulletin boards in the church for a listing of the dates and the topics. All are cordially invited to join us.

Invitations went out in the regular mail to catechists, lectors and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion to do their best in attending these Nights of Adoration and Benediction which have been planned in response to the Eucharistic Revival. I look forward to seeing those who serve in the liturgical life and catechetical life of Saint Margaret at these nights.

This Lenten exercise is also leading us to a parish-wide participation in the Solemnity of Corpus Christi – one of two main celebrations of the parish's 75th Anniversary. Please follow future editions of the bulletin for more details on the 75th Anniversary. The first event is a Mass at 11:00 AM on June 11th. A highlight at that first celebration will be to underscore the ministries and apostolates which we have at Saint Margaret.

Till the next time.

To clarify the matter of second collections, the following is offered to the parishioners of Saint Margaret.

Second collections are designated by the Diocese every year. We know when they occur by a listing of them and the envelopes for them which are mailed to parishioners who support our parish financially. It needs to be stated that designated second collections are to be taken up at all Masses, in all parishes in the Diocese.

If you are offering your donation to the parish weekly or monthly and you don't know when the second collections are, please see a listing for them in the ushers' room in the vestibule of the church or the bulletin boards of the church. We are grateful for your support of these second collections. They are not however optional and neither are they income for the parish.

St. Margaret's Bible Study

The Parish Bible Study is held on Wednesdays at 10 AM in the Parish Center.

Deacon Ed Hayes will be the facilitator.
Please bring your Bible.

Please note—there will be NO Bible Study on March 8th

The church is open at 8:30 AM Monday through Friday. We encourage parishioners and other church-goers to come early for Mass.

The recitation of the rosary is encouraged among those so inclined.

Mass Book for 2023

The Mass Book for 2023 is open in the parish center.
We encourage you to remember deceased relatives and friends at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Through the Communion of Saints, we are never removed from those whom we love. We hope for a reunion with them in God's providence, and praying for them now helps to bring that reunion a nearer prospect.

St. Margaret of Scotland's 75th Anniversary

With our celebration of the parish's 75th Anniversary, we are publishing a journal. If you have any material (e.g. newspaper articles) in your possession related to the founding of St. Margaret and you would like to loan it to the parish, please see Julie Burtoff in the parish center during regular business hours.

On the Solemnity of Corpus Christi on June 11th, the principal Mass that day will be offered at 11:00 AM. It will be followed by an outdoor procession with the Blessed Sacrament off our property. It will conclude with Benediction back in the church. To continue our celebration on the 11th of June, there will be a reception on the grounds of the parish. Again, please follow the bulletin for more details over the coming months. Mark your calendar.

We ask you to hold the date of Sunday, November 19th between 1 and 5 PM for the principal celebration of the parish's 75th Anniversary. In the meantime, please continue to follow the bulletin on all things related to the anniversary of Saint Margaret.

Guidelines for Fasting & Abstinence

All Catholics who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on all the Fridays of Lent.

All Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Good Friday.

This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day. Those whose work or health would be impaired are excused from fast and abstinence. Individual conscience should decide proper cause for excuse. A more serious reason is required to excuse oneself from Good Friday fast and abstinence.

Hands Needed!

Our Music Ministry is in need of someone to assist in placing the words on our screen during Mass. All that is required is clicking the next screen with one button.

Please see Dan, our Music Minister, after Mass or call at 631-732-3131 x117. Prayerfully consider.

Sunday, Feb 26, 2023God's messengers

Have you thought much about your guardian angel since you prayed at bedtime when you were a kid? If not, maybe it's time to catch up with the one that's been assigned to help you. The word angelos means "messenger" in Greek, and since angels "always behold the face" of God in heaven (Matthew 18:10), they're well-positioned to intercede for you. Appreciate the watchful care that surrounds you and protects you from spiritual and perhaps physical dangers. Their constant attention indicates how precious you are to God and how active God wishes to be in your life.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7; Romans 5:12-19; Matthew 4:1-11 (22). "He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you."

Monday, Feb 27, 2023A book for your nightstand, next to your Bible

Grigor Narekatsi, born near the turn of the first millennium, was an Armenian mystical and lyrical poet, monk, and theologian. He has the distinction of being venerated as a saint in the Armenian Apostolic and Catholic Churches and was declared a doctor of the church by Pope Francis in 2015. The prayer book of Gregory of Narek is a fixture in religious Armenian homes, second only to the Bible, and is considered a masterpiece of Christian spiritual literature. It has been translated into 30 languages, including English. Given the rave reviews, consider this writer-saint for your next read!

MEMORIAL OF GREGORY OF NAREK, ABBOT, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18; Matthew 25:31-46 (224). "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Tuesday, Feb 28, 2023United in prayer

Pope Benedict XVI, may he rest in peace, wrote beautifully on prayer and the Our Father: "In praying our heart is opened. Not only do we enter into communion with God but actually with all the children of God, because we are one body. When we address the Father in our inner room in silence and in recollection we are never alone. Those who speak to God are not alone. We are within the great prayer of the Church, we are part of a great symphony that the Christian community in all the parts of the earth and in all epochs, raises to God." Pray the Our Father slowly and consciously today, with everyone.

LENTEN WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (225). "This is how you are to pray: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name."

Wednesday, Mar 01, 2023Get on board for justice

Today marks the 98th death anniversary of Homer Plessy, the man who attempted to end segregation with his legendary ride on a whites-only streetcar in New Orleans in 1892. His efforts were unsuccessful, and the following seven decades of U.S. jurisprudence included segregation as a bedrock feature. Plessy, however, is much less heralded for the fact that he was a man of faith, a black Catholic whose famous ride was organized by an interracial activist group known as the Comité des Citoyens (Citizens' Committee). Their holy disobedience was one of the first Catholic-led efforts against the developing hierarchy of racism in the formerly French and Spanish regions of the Deep South. May the courage of Plessy and his allies be of use to us today as we continue the march toward justice.

LENTEN WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32 (226). "Man and beast shall be covered with sackcloth and call loudly to God; every man shall turn from his evil way and from the violence he has in hand."

Thursday, Mar 02, 2023Read it and reap

Welcome to Read Across America Day, established in 1998 by the National Education Association to encourage this most central, enjoyable, and enriching of activities. Popular among teachers, students, and librarians, today can also be a day for Catholics to explore and support organizations such as the Catholic Media Association, whose members inform, inspire, and educate readers, keeping them connected to their faith, and telling the story of the church. Check a list of Catholic newspapers and magazines to find one you can support with a subscription. You in turn will be supported in your faith.

LENTEN WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Matthew 7:7-12 (227). "Everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened."

Friday, Mar 03, 2023Store up treasure in heaven

Saint Katharine Drexel was born in Philadelphia in 1858 to a wealthy family. The Drexels had a reputation for generosity, reportedly opening their home several days a week to feed and care for people in need. They also made time every day to pray together. During a trip to Europe as a young woman, Katharine was able to have an audience with Pope Leo XIII. She asked the Holy Father to send missionaries to Wyoming. He answered, "Why don't you go?" Not long after, Katharine stunned society by leaving behind her privileged life to dedicate herself to religious life. She worked to improve living conditions and educational opportunities for African Americans and Native Americans. She left a legacy far greater than her family fortune.

MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Matthew 5:20-26 (228). "Go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Saturday, Mar 04, 2023Short but sweet sainthood

Lenten inspiration can come from anywhere—from scripture to Instagram, from saints to young people. While not a Bible figure or social media influencer, 15th-century Casimir of Poland happens to fit the categories of both saint and young person. Saint Casimir was a prince who was under intense pressure from his family and country to take a leading role in government and politics. But Casimir felt called to focus on prayer, study, and care for people in need. Although he had to contend with some very disappointed people, he stood firm in his decision to follow his calling. Disease cut short his life at the tender age of 25, but his example can inspire us to live out our calling and thus help fulfill his.

MEMORIAL OF CASIMIR, PRINCE

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 26:16-19; Matthew 5:43-48 (229). "This day the LORD, your God, commands you to observe these statutes and decrees. . . . with all your heart and with all your soul."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
